

“Biomedical Waste Management & Hand Hygiene” on 31 October 2017

An instructor course on “Biomedical Waste Management & Hand Hygiene” for Faculty, Residents and staff was organized on 31st October 2017 for capacity building, which was attended by 33 participants from AIIMS Rishikesh at Medical Education Hall.

Resource faculty for Training programme included Dr. Anupam Wakhlu, Professor, King Georges Medical University, Lucknow, Dr. Kirti Srivastava, Professor, King Georges Medical University, Lucknow, Dr. Mohd Parvez Khan, Professor, King Georges Medical University, Lucknow, Dr. Himanshu Dandu, Associate Professor, King Georges Medical University, Lucknow. Coordinator for this program were Dr. Balram ji Omar and Dr. Gita Negi from AIIMS, Rishikesh.

Candidates for this program were assessed by Pre-test and Post-test with MCQ evaluation. Faculty, Residents and staff who attended training programme expressed that methods used for training and assessing were appropriate and sessions were informative.

