

Basic Life Support, American heart association (AHA) certified courses for Post Graduate students of AIIMS Rishikesh

Training Programme on Basic Life Support, American Heart association (AHA) certified course for Post Graduate students of AIIMS Rishikesh was organized by Department of Medical Education from 25 to 26 September 2017. A total of 107 Post Graduate students of Institute were trained (106 academic junior residents and one non academic junior resident).

Resource faculty for Training programme are from King George's Medical University. Interactive hands on workshop with coordinator Prof Rajni singh (Department of Anaesthesiology & Critical Care, King Georges Medical University, Uttar Pradesh) and her members team Dr. Prem Raj Singh, Dr. Rajesh Raman, and in instructors Dr Shalinee Rao, Dr Suresh K Sharma, Dr Manisha Naithani, Dr Pankaj Kandwal, Dr Barun Kumar, Dr Ashi Chug, Dr Puneet K Gupta, Mr Rajesh and Mrs Xavier Belsiyal.

Basic Life Support (BLS) has new 2015 AHA Guidelines for Cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR). BLS Instructor-led course teaches both single-rescuer and team basic life support skills for application in both pre hospital and in-facility environments, with a focus on High-Quality CPR and team dynamics. This learning course combines the flexibility of online training with in person skills practice and testing. It is through a variety of eLearning assets such as dramatizations, e Simulations, animations, self-directed learning, and interactive activities, this course teaches students BLS knowledge and skills.

At the end of session, participants were assessed by Post-test with MCQ evaluation and OSCE.

