About Master of Public Health – AIIMS Rishikesh (MPH)

Public Health education for long has been expected to find solutions for multitude of Public Health problems. Existing capacity and hence output in field of public health in India is highly inadequate to meet this need. To ensure that such critical mass of Public Health experts is built and maintained, it is recommended to strengthen training capacity of individuals working in field of health care.

SPH - AIIMS Rishikesh is dedicated to provide excellence in public health education, research, fellowship, training, and highest standards of care to community. Master of Public Health (MPH) program at AIIMS Rishikesh is developed to provide professional critical multidisciplinary training to help tackle various public health issues and achieve leadership position.

Aim of program is to develop best quality public health professionals to deliver outstanding health care to all through evidence based public health practice. Students from diverse disciplinary and professional backgrounds at Public Health- AIIMS Rishikesh are imparted training by using different pedagogical methods which includes problem-solving exercises, field based training including observerships in organizations working in field of Public Health, case studies, and other interactive methods.
